

“Biological Clock”

© Marsh Family, January 2022

VERSE 1

[Danielle] Forty five
Got to the point that I am confident, and feeling alive
[Girls] But we're beholden to a biological clock
[Boys] She gets alarming loud headaches
and has mental blocks

PRE-CHORUS #1

Feeling low tonight (she's like dynamite)
Letting go tonight (gonna blow tonight)
I'm in pain tonight (she ain't feeling right)
Stay away

CHORUS

She blows hot and cold
It's like nobody knows
But there's a lot inside she's got going on
She goes cold and hot
If you like it or not
You better not rely on her coming on

VERSE 2

[Girls] She's restyled
[Danielle] I'm not ashamed to say I'm changing, but I'm unreconciled
We go from monthly hits, that you can set by a clock
Then it's hormonal cold turkey, when the periods stop

VERSE 3

[Boys] Sleep deprived
She's like a Zombie or a Womble, but without all the drive
She wanders up and down, forgetting what she's about [Ben] And it's a brave man comes a knocking, when the lights are out

MIDDLE EIGHTH #1

[Danielle] Baby what makes me, 'me':
It's more than just skin deep
[Girls] She's over ovaries
[Boys] We didn't know, of course
What's "perimenopause"?!
Sounds like a Nando's sauce!

PRE-CHORUS #2

Gonna glow tonight (she's like dynamite)
Letting go tonight (gonna blow tonight)
Sisters all unite (set the world alight)
Breakaway

CHORUS

She blows hot and cold
It's like nobody knows
But there's a lot inside she's got going on
She goes cold and hot
If you like it or not
You better not rely on her coming on

MIDDLE EIGHTH #1

[Danielle] Thank God for HRT
That stuff's alright by me
[Ben & Ella] Fix her up chemically
[Girls] Just till she's on her feet
Oestrogen on repeat
[Boys] Don't hit the toilet seat!

CHORUS

She blows hot and cold
It's like nobody knows
But there's a lot inside she's got going on
She goes cold and hot
If you like it or not
You better not rely on her coming on
